To whom it may concern,

I completely & 100% endorse the Pathfinders for Autism program. As an Anne Arundel County police academy instructor and current commander of the Crisis Intervention Team, the teaching sessions I have had the opportunity to observe have been very informative and done with excellence.

I had the opportunity to hear the presentation as a student in a recent CIT training course. I also have had the privilege to co-teach with the team at a recent training session with our police recruits. I will be utilizing Pathfinders to teach a block at our upcoming CIT school we will be hosting in Anne Arundel County.

The passion and dedication the instructors display when teaching is truly refreshing. From a law enforcement perspective, I believe the most beneficial part of the training is how the instructors interact with the students and introduce a person with autism into the lesson plan. I would highly recommend this training and will continue to work with the Pathfinders for Autism for all our CIT & recruit related training.

Sincerely,

Sgt. Michael J. Cox #1231
